Aortic Ectasia & Aneurysms

DOCUMENTATION TIPS

Aortic ectasia and aneurysms are often incidental findings in CT scans. These conditions cannot be reported based on the radiological procedure alone. The provider must bring the diagnosis into the progress note and document the pertinent findings and treatment.

Diagnosis:

- Site: ascending, descending, abdominal, thoracic, thoracoabdominal
- Severity: ectasia, aneurysm
- Contributing factors: atherosclerosis, hypertension, hyperlipidemia, tobacco use
- Complications: dissection, rupture

Status: stable, worsening, requires surgery

Plan: monitor, referral to specialist
