Renewal of Coverage

With some exceptions, coverage is guaranteed to renew each year. Members must follow the procedures required by the Marketplace to redetermine eligibility for enrollment every year during the annual open enrollment period. Molina may non-renew coverage if a Member fails to pay timely premiums, commits fraud, or no longer resides in Molina's service area. Molina may non-renew a dependent child who reaches the limiting age of 26. Molina reserves the right to change premiums and benefits annually. At the time of renewal, Molina may modify the Policy for everyone who has it, as long as the modification is consistent with federal and state law and effective on a uniform basis; however, Molina will not decline to renew the Policy simply because of a change in a Member's physical or mental health. Please refer to the Policy for details on eligibility, enrollment, age restrictions, continuation of coverage, renewals, termination and reinstatement.
